BROMO BEATS ST. ISIDORE.

RUNS AWAY FROM THE LATTER IN THE STRETCH TO WIN IN A CANTER.

Recount Wins All the Way in the Sprightful Stakes —Tippity Witchet Runs Unplaced and Goes to a New Owner.

New York, July 24.—L. S. Thompson's good four-year-old Bromo maintained his speed to a victory over a considerable distance of ground for the first time this year, when he led home a good band of handicap racers in the Red Cross Handicap at Empire City this afternoon. This mile and a sixteenth race featured the charity day program and attracted a large crowd to the hilltop course.

There was little to the race but Bromo and the son of Broomstick gave his followers little uneasiness. Away well, he was saved behind St. Isidore until rounding the final turn, when he moved up with a rush and readily took the lead. When swinging for home he had his opponents well beaten and at the end was only cantering, to score a five lengths victory. St. Isidore, after making the early running, was unable to withstand the rush of Bromo, but had little trouble in defeating the others of the field. At the end he was being eased up and easily took second place from Ballad, which closed up with a rush at the end.

Andrew Miller's two-year-old Recount, raced to the promise of his work for the first time this year when he scored a victory in the Sprightful Selling Stakes, the secondary feature of the afternoon's sport. The Miller colt was the quickest at the barrier and, beginning fast, went to the front, never to be headed. Right at the start he swerved to the inside, slightly interfering with Dawn Star. Lykes entered a claim of foul, but after deliberation, the stewards allowed the result to stand. Dawn Star was the one to race to second place, coming fast through the final quarter, but never seriously threatening the winner. Corydon, away slowly, closed a gap in the early running, but was tiring at the end. Tippity Witchet, the prohibitive choice, raced disappointingly.

Harry Fink, represented in the Sprightful Stakes by Hypnotism, claimed Tippity Witchet for $3,060.

Sandstone II., winner of the fifth race, was bid up from $500 to $3,000 by Harry Fink and sold at that price.

Joe Short of Troy, a trainer of the old school, is among the recent arrivals at the course.

J. O. Talbott has purchased the three-year-old Piraeus from A. H. Morris at private terms.

Weights for the Yonkers Handicap, the mile and a sixteenth feature of Saturday's racing, have been issued and of the probable starters, Borrow heads the list with 128 pounds. Roamer is asked to take up 124 pounds, Spur 122 and St. Isidore, 115.

OPENING FEATURE TO OLD ROSEBUD.

Shoulders 132 Pounds in Kenilworth Handicap and Wins in Canter—Big Crowd Present.

Windsor, Ont., July 24.—The Kenilworth meeting which opened this afternoon, marked the final racing in Canada for this season, or rather until after the war comes to a close. A tremendous gathering turned out and some excellent sport was witnessed. The program was made up of a series of well matched fields, good class being noticeable in several of the races. Detroit race-goers had another opportunity of seeing that good racer Old Rosebud in action. Old Rosebud was a starter in the Kenilworth, the afternoon's feature race. He shouldered top weight, 132 pounds, raced under restraint from the start and won in a canter, from Kinney. This was Old Rosebud's final appearance in Canada. His race this afternoon was in the nature of a "prep" for the Stratoga Hunting Cup.

The Applegate Stable was much in evidence. Beside Old Rosebud, the Kentucky turfman's colors were carried to victory in the fourth race which, went to the good two-year-old Jack Hare, Jr. The latter led all the way and won in a canter. The track was in excellent condition and fast time was made during the afternoon.

The betting enclosure is the finest of its kind in Canada. It is large and airy, with more than sufficient room. The officers are practically the same as those at Windsor, with the exception of Edward Cole, who is one of the placing judges.

Julius Reeder, assistant secretary to Jack Campbell at the Kentucky and Fort Erie tracks and, who is filling a similar position here, has been notified that his number was one of the first drawn in the recent draft. He will return to his home in New Orleans at the conclusion of the present meeting.

Bedwell Racers to Be Shipped to Laurel.

H. G. Bedwell has decided to ship his entire stable from here to Laurel next week. The J. K. L. Ross horses will be included in the shipment.

Damrosch, in the latter's string, was kicked in the hock by Celto while at the post the last time that he started and is lame. Bedwell has obtained second call on the services of jockey Lowder for the fall meetings in Maryland.

Jockey W. Collins goes from here to Saratoga, where he will ride as a free lance. His engagements will be looked after by Freddie Gailor.

M. Lowenstein will leave for Lexington with his horses after the close of the racing season here. He will enter his promising two-year-old Theodore Fair in any of the two-year-old stakes that are yet open on the Kentucky circuit.

Joe Murphy and William Chapman left for Buffalo on Sunday. Mr. Murphy and his family will motor from Buffalo to Saratoga by easy stages and will be on hand for the opening of that meeting.

The division of the purses here have been so arranged that the winners' portion of the $800 races amounts to $610.

Frank Weir leaves with the Applegate racers, which include besides Old Rosebud, the promising two-year-old Jack Hare Jr., on Friday for Saratoga.

J. F. Buckley claimed Ardent, winner of the second race, for $1010.

RUNNING RACING AT BROOKFIELD, MO.

The officials of the Brookfield Fair at Brookfield, Mo., have programmed a number of running races for August 7, 8, 9 and 10. Brookfield is near St. Louis and these races offer owners on their way to Cheyenne and Reno a chance to pick up some expense money en route. Secretary W. W. Martin advertises the matter in this issue of Daily Racing Form and the attention of owners and trainers, who intend to go west, is called to the suggestions of his advertisement on the last page.

PARMER TO ABANDON HORSE BREEDING

Yearlings to Be Sold at Saratoga and Sires, Mares and Foals Later On.

When Walter O. Parmer, the genius of the Windsor race track offers his thoroughbred yearlings at public auction at Saratoga on August 4, through the Powers-Hunter Company, of New York, he will, in all likelihood, offer the last yearlings that will come to the eastern market from the once-famous Belle Meade Stud at Nashville, which was founded by the late General William Harding and was for twenty years the home of Iroquois, the only American-bred race horse that has yet won the Epsom Derby. Mr. Parmer, who formerly bred his yearlings at Edenwold, bought Belle Meade a couple of years ago with the intention of restoring it to its old place as a thoroughbred nursery. He has changed his mind since then. The stallions and broodmares, with all foals and weanlings at Belle Meade are to be sold later in the year by the Powers-Hunter Company.

For many years The Commoner, one of the greatest sons of Hanover, was the head of the Parmer stud, and the Edenwold stallion, whose yearlings were most sought for by horsemen. The Commoner is dead now. The last of his get were sold at Saratoga last year. The youngsters Mr. Parmer will offer at the coming sale are mostly sons and daughters of the English stallion Assagai, a son of Spearmint—Charm, she a daughter of St. Simon, which Mr. Parmer brought over from Great Britain a few years ago. Assagai, a racer of parts which was prevented by the injuring of a ligament in one of his legs from really fulfilling his destiny, is a grandson in the maternal line of Tact, whose grandsons and granddaughters have won about $300,000 in Great Britain, Ireland and France. He is a horse of striking individuality, robust and virile, and a uniform breeder.

Of the seventeen youngsters by Assagai that will go under the hammer the first Saturday of the Saratoga meeting, ten are fillies and seven are colts. One of the colts is a bay, dam Touch Not, the dam of Touch Me, Notasulga, Commoner's Touch and Great Britain, he the long-distance champion of Canada for two years. This is a youngster of splendid size and good proportions. A colt, dam Nevada, is a half-brother of the winners Commodore and Commonada; another, dam Luckless, is a half-brother of Friendless, one of the fastest two-year-olds that raced last year and, in addition to these, there are half-brothers of Ben Hodder, Argument and Ivanetto.

Offspring of Assagai Unusually Virile.

Assagai is what the breeding experts call a pure dominant, that is to say, he breeds to one color. His fillies, like his colts, are bays. And a horse that so marks his offspring is believed to be unusually virile. Among the eleven bay fillies are a half-sister of Ed Roche, a half-sister of General Neville, a daughter of Hawkslight, she a half-sister of Lucky Lass, the dam of August Belmont's brilliant two-year-old Lucullite; a half-sister of Miss Gayle and Dimity, and a half-sister of Icicle and Antiseptic.

Other stallions that will be represented in the sale are Vulcain, a brilliant young son of Rock Sand, Mr. Belmont is headlining at his Nursery Stud in Kentucky; Ballot, sire of Ticket, Ballad, Bally and Midway; Trap Rock, sire of Daddy's Choice and Lucullite; Sain, sire of Jack Atkin and Nealon; Dr. Boots and Duke of Ormonde.

It is a pretty sure thing that there will be a scramble for the representative of Vulcain, for this one is no less than a half-brother of the brilliant Roamer. This youngster is a bay colt and he is already as big as Roamer was, when the late Woodford Clay brought him to the races as a two-year-old. He is bigger-boned also and better coupled than Roamer. Ballot's contribution is a bay filly, dam the Trenton mare Colonial, which has already sent Hessian, a good race horse himself, and the sire of Boots, a still better one, and Airman to the American races. And this miss is good to look at. Trap Rock's representatives are fillies, dam Hortensia, the dam of Commensia and Marianao, and dam Highflown. Sain is represented by a filly, dam Florentia, a daughter of the line of Firenze and Boots and the dam of Grumpy, and Duke of Ormonde by a bay colt, dam Mercadel, she a sister of Countless, a Saratoga Cup winner.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

P. D., Chicago, Ill. Your query was answered several days ago. It was in time and a losing venture.

B. T. A., Louisville, Ky. A wager on a single horse of a coupled entry is decided by the running of that horse.

W. W. W., Cincinnati, O. In the mutuels when place tickets are sold on any horse in a race, they are sold on every horse in the race.

C. W., Huntsville, Ill. For the registry number of a horse, write to W. H. Rowe, Registrar of the Stud Book, 18 East 41st street, New York.

G. A. L., Louisville, Ky. Technically a stipulation that it must be a fast or good track, would not have been fully met by the track conditions at Empire City July 18.

R. McC., Hammond, Ind. Tartarean was not coupled with Corn Broom at Windsor last Saturday. He was in the field and Corn Broom was coupled with Old Pop as the C.A. Crew entry.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Grant Hugh Browne's horses have arrived at the Mount Royal track for the meeting of the London Jockey Club.

Jockey W. Taylor, riding at Delorimier Park, was notified that he had been drafted for army service and to report at Detroit.

Robert Bain, well-known in eastern turf circles, escaped injury in an automobile accident Sunday, in which two of the party were killed. His wife, the daughter of Dr. Ashe, who is at present acting as an official in Canada, fortunately escaped with a severe shaking up.

From Hot Springs comes the news that work will be rushed on the grandstand at Essex Park in order to have it completed in time for a fall meeting, plans for which it is said, are now under way.

Horsemen at Montreal say that rumors from Ottawa are to the effect that the Canadian government will make an amendment to the Order-in-Council prohibiting betting on races after August 1, which will allow wagering on racing to continue until September 1.
